Sounds which address the ear, are lost, and die
In one short hour; but that which strikes the eye
Lives long upon the mind; The faithful sight
Engraves the knowledge with a beam of light.

Thomas May Peirce.

Then, pilgrim, turn, thy cares forego,
All earthborn cares are wrong;
Man wants but little here below,
Nor wants that little long.

J. Craigie.

And what is friendship but a name,
A charm that lulls to sleep,
A shade that follows wealth and fame,
And leaves the wretch to weep?

J. Kane.

Politeness reaches its supreme test in the assumption of cheerfulness when an unwelcome visitor tells a well-known story.

A success seems larger when a failure is used a measuring stick.

A ten-thousand-dollar reward is often offered for the ten-dollar clerk who has proven to be a defaulter.

Kind hearts are gardens.
Kind thoughts are roots.

The pen, the pen, the brave old pen,
Which stamped our thoughts of yore,
Through its bold tracings oft again
Our thoughts still freshly pour.

To make the world
better, nobler, and happier,
is the noblest work of man or woman.
